

Romans 10:5-13

Salvation Is for All

Moses writes concerning the righteousness that comes from the law, that ‘the person who does these things will live by them.’

But the righteousness that comes from faith says,

‘Do not say in your heart, “Who will ascend into heaven?”’ (that is, to bring Christ down)’

But what does it say?

or “Who will descend into the abyss?”
(that is, to bring Christ up from the dead).

But what does it say?
‘The word is near you,
on your lips and in your heart’

(that is, the word of faith that we proclaim);

because if you confess with your lips that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved.

For one believes with the heart and so is justified, and one confesses with the mouth and so is saved.

The scripture says,

‘No one who believes in him will be put to shame.’

For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all and is generous to all who call on him.

For, ‘Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.’
